Borrow some experience.™

For thousands of unbiased ratings and reviews on service companies in your area, visit AngiesList.com.

When you're trying to find help for a project around your home, why not borrow the experience of thousands of Angie's List members?

Make sure you ask for the discount.

Don't expect him to negotiate.

No matter how odd the job is, they still do it.

Educate your guess™

Angie's List is a member driven service where homeowners across the U.S. share their ratings and reviews on local service companies.

Ratings, reviews...

Companies don't pay to be on the List, nor can they put themselves on the List. Members submit detailed reports (both good and bad) on companies they've hired. They rate their experience and describe what it was like to work with the contractor. Needless to say, we've collected some interesting reports over the years.

...and sometimes revenge

Not all companies on Angie's List are rated highly. When Angie's List members have a gripe about a company they've hired, they describe it in their report. As an Angie's List member, if you don't receive the service you expected from a company, we'll contact the company on your behalf in an effort to resolve the situation.

Magazines & perks

Members receive our award-winning monthly magazine filled with home maintenance articles and tips, buyer beware alerts, comparative shopping information on local services to point out the best deals in town and exclusive coupons from highly rated companies on the List.

Check the List

Members can search the List by logging on to AngiesList.com or by calling us. We're open 6 days a week to answer your questions. The next page shows just a sampling of our 280-plus categories. Go to AngiesList.com for the full list.
