

Discovering Your Keys to Success!

Unlocking your full potential begins with understanding what you really want, what you're good at and where you may need to dedicate some time in building your skill sets.

And once you discovered those things what steps can you take within your workplace to leverage what you've learned and maximize your personal success.

The Northern NJ NWIR chapter is pleased to host 2 dynamic speakers who will share insights and help you craft a personal plan for success

- Unlocking Your Potential... Carrie Ballone is the principal of the Leadership Distillery and has more than 20 years of expertise as a leadership coach and professional development executive. Carrie will lead us in a self-discovery exercise and help us learn best practice in leveraging our strengths to achieve our goals
- Maximizing Success in the Workplace... Lisa Calicchio is the SVP and Chief Human Resource Manager at GAF with 20 years as a results-delivering HR leader and executive coach. Lisa will share with us key strategies to grow and achieve organizational and professional success.
